Who has to sit the GAT?
All Year 12 VCE students and Year 11 students who are doing a Year 12 VCE or Year 12 VCE/VET subject that has an end of year examination.

What is the GAT?
- It is 3 hour general achievement test
- The exam contains
  - 70 multiple choice questions (2 hours approx)
  - 2 written tasks (about 30 mins each)
- Assesses the range of knowledge and skills that students have built up in Secondary School. These include;
  - The ability to write clearly and logically, and to express a point of view in writing
  - The ability to read, understand and make appropriate inferences from written materials, pictures, cartoons and diagrams
  - The ability to extract information and draw conclusions from text, charts and tables.

What is the GAT used for?
- Statistical moderation of marks.
- Checks that internally marked assessments (SAC’s and SAT’s) have been correctly marked
- Special Consideration and Derived Examination Score if a student becomes ill, injured or experience personal hardship around the exams.
- Validates externally assessed exams
- Made Available to Universities and Higher Education Institutions can be used in middle band selection process

Why should students do their best on the GAT?
- It’s an insurance policy if something goes wrong during exam time.
- The higher your score, the more likely it is that the GAT will help you.
- Accepting a challenge is more fun that not accepting a challenge.
- Three hours will pass quickly if you are absorbed in the task and slowly if you are not.

IMPORTANT!!!
The GAT cannot be rescheduled. If you are unable to attend the GAT please contact the school ASAP. (School Phone 9703 1266)

END OF GAT BBQ!!
A FREE BBQ will run for all students who sit the GAT outside the entrance to the ECCA

VCAA Rules for the conduct of VCE Examinations and the General Achievement Test (GAT) 2015

Students are required to observe the following rules for the conduct of VCAA examinations conducted by or on behalf of the VCAA, as well as the day-to-day rules and examination rules of their school and of the examination venue.

VCAA examination rules shall apply with appropriate and reasonable modifications to students who have disabilities or other impairments.

All supervisors are issued with directions for the administration of the examinations and are required to report all alleged breaches of VCAA rules to the VCAA. Supervisors have the right to check any calculator or dictionary that is taken into an examination.

1. Students must not cheat or assist other students to cheat.
2. Students must not take any action that gives or attempts to give them or another student an unfair advantage in an examination.
3. Students must not allow, induce or assist any other person to present for an examination in their place.
4. Students must not present for an examination in another student's place.
5. Students must not present for an examination under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
6. Students must obey and observe all proper instructions or directions given by their supervisor.
7. Students attending an examination may bring only materials and equipment approved for that examination into the examination room.
8. Students must not possess mobile phones and electronic devices that are capable of storing, receiving or transmitting information or electronic signals, such as recorded music and video players, organisers, dictionaries and computerised watches during an examination.
9. Students detected with any device defined in Rule 8 must, upon the direct instruction of a supervisor, surrender that device for inspection. Any confiscated device will be retained, pending any investigation into an alleged breach of VCAA rules.
10. Students must not bring into or possess in the examination room any drinks or food except under special circumstances as approved and directed by the VCAA. Bottled water is permitted in the examination room under approved conditions.
11. Students must not communicate with any other student while the examination is being conducted.
12. Students must not cause any nuisance, annoyance or interference to any other student during an examination.
13. Students must not remove, tear out or damage any part of a bound reference, script book, question and answer book or answer book, except formula sheets or similar permitted examination materials.
14. Students must not remove any response material, used or unused, from the examination room.
15. Students must not begin to write or mark their paper or response material in any way, or use a calculator, until advised by a supervisor that writing may commence.
16. Students must raise their hand if they wish to communicate with a supervisor.
17. Students must not leave their place until permitted by a supervisor.
18. Students will not be permitted to leave the examination before 30 minutes have elapsed from the start of writing time.
19. Students will not be permitted to leave the examination in the last five minutes of the examination.
20. Students must cease writing when instructed to do so by a supervisor.
21. Students must remain silent and seated in their place at the end of the examination until response materials have been collected and checked, and an announcement is made permitting students to leave the examination room.
22. Students must not communicate with an assessor, either before or after a written examination or during a performance examination, except when communication is necessary for the conduct of the examination.
